2022 Employee of the Year Presentation

Introduction & Background:

Every year, nominations are solicited from departments and offices for the employee of the year award. After receiving nominations, the workforce development committee reviews and votes to determine the award recipient.

Discussion & Analysis:

This year, eighteen (18) nominations were received and the committee selected two recipients:

- Michael Daniels, Veteran Services Officer
- Lucian Stewart, Application Solutions Engineer

This year's recipients encompass what excellent service to the county looks like, from both an internal organizational perspective as well as an external community-based perspective.

How does this relate to the Comprehensive Plan:

Budgetary Impact:

Recommendation/Motion: Receive presentation of two (2) 2022 Employees of the Year and present certificates.
