They provide safety, freedom, entertainment, education, challenges, and fun. They strengthen our sense of community. A public library isn't doing it's job if it doesn't have some materials (in various media) that offend us. I have been a branch manager in two large, urban public library systems (New Orleans and Albuquerque); additionally I have 18+ years experience as a special librarian in hospitals and pharmaceutical development companies. I want to help the Chatham County Library protect the wealth of resources on its shelves and in its staff.
