Resolution of the Chatham County Board of Commissioners RECOGNIZING RACE AMITY DAY

WHEREAS, Chatham County embraces the diversity of its residents and supports the United States motto E Pluribus Unum (“Out of Many, One”); and

WHEREAS, the people of Chatham County—from many racial and ethnic backgrounds—are the County’s greatest asset; and

WHEREAS, friendship, respect, and kindness are ideals that bind together all communities in the State of North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the Race Amity Movement encourages counties and cities to join together to celebrate interracial friendship and promote understanding on Race Amity Day; and

WHEREAS, observing Race Amity Day provides an opportunity for residents to reflect on shared values, strengthen relationships, and foster unity across diverse backgrounds; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Chatham County Board of Commissioners hereby recognize Race Amity Day on June 13, 2026 in Chatham County, and urge all residents to observe the day by celebrating unity, friendship, and understanding throughout our diverse community.

Adopted, this the 18th day of May 2026.

Amanda Robertson, Chair
