Resolution of the Chatham County Board of Commissioners

HONORING RENEE FULLER PASCHAL

WHEREAS, Renee Fuller Paschal has devoted nearly all of her career in public service to Chatham County Government, starting in October 1993 and concluding October 1, 2018 with her retirement; and

WHEREAS, Renee held several Chatham County management positions during her tenure, including being selected as the first female County Manager by this Board of Commissioners in November 2015; and

WHEREAS, regardless of her position, Renee modeled and inspired the pursuit of excellence throughout all of county government and our Chatham community; and

WHEREAS, several vital county facilities are due in great part to Renee's extraordinary budgetary leadership and vision, including several new K-12 schools, the Judicial Center, four county parks, County Agriculture & Conference Center, CCCC Health Sciences Building, Joint CCCC and Community Library, Joint School & County Garage, and the reconstruction of our beloved Historic Courthouse; and

WHEREAS, her fiscal leadership led to Chatham County becoming and remaining the smallest size county in the state to earn a AAA Bond Rating in 2014 from Standard & Poor's, which saves tax dollars on new facilities; and

WHEREAS, Renee's forward thinking has helped our county government prepare for the future in many ways, from developing the successful Chatham Leadership Academy for employees, now in its 16th year, to championing the Comprehensive Plan adopted in 2017; and

WHEREAS, these are but a few illustrations of Renee's enduring commitment to the pursuit of excellence throughout her career in public service.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Chatham County Board of Commissioners honors the tremendous service of Renee Paschal for her legacy of excellence that will continue to benefit all of Chatham County for generations to come.

Adopted, this the ____ day of _____.
