Why do you wish to serve in this capacity? I believe I can bring considerable knowledge and experience to the Planning Board to help advise the Board of Commissioners concerning development applications and other planning decisions.

Education/Experience: I have a B.S. in Science Education from UNC-CH. I am recently retired from being Executive Director of the Haw River Assembly for 30 years. I have served previously on the Chatham County Planning Board, and also served on the NC Sedimentation Control Commission. My many years of service on the Environmental Review Board and the Environmental Review Advisory Committee gives me in-depth perspective of planning applications. I have also served on the Chatham County Tree Protection Working Group and as a member of the UDO Subcommittee. .
