As a member of this committee, I have been able to learn so much about the library such as the services that the library offers and the amazing people that work there. I am excited to support Christy and the library as much as I can. I am committed to keeping the libraries as essential community hubs that promote lifelong learning, digital access, and civic engagement. I would be honored to contribute to strengthening these services for our community through the Library Advisory Committee. Through my work with Chatham Literacy, I bring experience in community engagement and collaborative decision-making. As a Latino woman, born and raised in Chatham County, I bring perspectives to the table that might otherwise be overlooked. In short, I love the library and I hope to bring everyone in Chatham County closer to it.
