11. Please demonstrate your interest, experience, or expertise relevant to the subject matter of the committee: I have lived and worked in Chatham County most of my life and care deeply about how our community grows while remaining fair, inclusive, and sustainable. My interest in serving on the Zoning Board of Adjustment stems from both professional and personal experience—seeing firsthand how land use decisions affect families and neighborhoods. As Program Director at Second Bloom of Chatham and a member of the Affordable Housing Advisory Committee, I've worked with residents, nonprofits, and local government to address housing access and community development. These experiences strengthened my commitment to fairness, transparency, and due process. My background in Public Administration (MPA) and Social Work (MSW candidate) has prepared me to listen carefully, review facts objectively, and make decisions that uphold public trust. I want to help ensure that Chatham County's growth continues in a way that protects people, property, and community values.
