11. Please demonstrate your interest, experience, or expertise relevant to the subject matter of the committee.

I have been involved in several boards such as United Way, Chatham Arts Incubator etc. and have participated in several community projects and groups such as West Chatham football, Siler City Merchants Assoc etc. I have 40+ years of banking experience in this local area from a lending officer to branch manger and portfolio manager. I have worked for United Guaranty a PMI company underwriting claims for insurance involving residential homes nationwide. I have reviewed portfolios for properties from sole proprietors to small businesses including properties from rental to a mixed use of retail, investment, public organizations, churches etc. I have a passion in reviewing project analysis for compliance and a desire to give back to my community. I understand the professionalism, commitment and responsibility to perform such an appointment.
