Why do you wish to serve the county in this capacity?

I have been a practicing pharmacist for 15 years and a citizen of Chatham County for almost 5. After completing my MHA in Health Policy at the UNC Gillings School of Global Public Health in 2015 I became very interested in identifying opportunities to utilize my knowledge and experience to positively impact healthcare in the public health setting. I put a pause on this interest as I gave birth to twins in late 2015 and decided that 2 babies plus a demanding full-time job was probably all I could handle for a while. Fast forward almost 6 years and my children are heading off to kindergarten and I am ready and excited by the potential opportunity to support the public health of Chatham County. In my role at UNC Health I am actively involved in supporting the medication formulary at Chatham Hospital and I appreciate the unique role that a Critical Access Hospital plays in providing healthcare to the residents of Chatham County. I have also had extensive involvement with the COVID
