Recognition for Chatham County by the Center for Digital Government and the National Association of Counties

Action Requested: Receive presentation

Introduction & Background: Each year the Center for Digital Government and NACo conduct a survey which is reviewed by a panel of experts. Counties across the US who choose to submit the survey and application for consideration are judged regarding their effectiveness in use of technology to meet a wide variety of priority characteristics. This presentation is to show recognition for Chatham County.

Discussion & Analysis: Chatham County has been recognized for effective technology use in support of many priority characteristics as determined by independent review.

How does this relate to the Comprehensive Plan: Recognizes the overall comprehensive plan from the perspective of our County providing strategic planning and open government. The plan itself also had information to support answers to the survey questionnaire.

Budgetary Impact: NA

Recommendation: Receive presentation
